

Halebury at Legal Geek 2017

Halebury CEO Denise Nurse is taking part in leading legal tech conference Legal Geek this year as one of the speakers. The theme to the conference this year is delivering you value.

The 2017 conference is going to be hosted in three connected venues in Shoreditch, London and over 100 start-ups from more than 20 countries have already signed up. The event will include: Startup Alley (50+ LawTech startups from around the world), speed 'TED talk' style speakers on the main stage, a second stage with intimate seminars and speakers, Legal Geek Startup awards, street food and barista coffee and the Law Rocks! charity after party.
